Open House At School Tonight

Parents And All Other Citizens To Join Observance Of Public School Week

All classrooms—from the kindergarten through the 8th grade—will be open at 7 o'clock this evening at the grammar school for the annual open house observance, according to Gerald Smith, superintendent. Open house is held this week in connection with Public Schools Week in California, with final programs staged today. Mr. Smith explained that through observance of Public Schools Week, an avenue is provided through which teachers may report to parents; through which citizens and taxpayers may visit the schools and see for themselves how this responsibility is being shouldered.

"Samples of school functions will be given in the school auditorium by means of a program beginning at 7:30 o'clock," the superintendent added. "The school orchestra will play; there will be demonstrations of kindergarten activities; the glee club will sing, and 6th grade students will have nature and science projects on the stage."

After the program parents may visit classrooms, see the pupils' work and visit with the teachers. In each classroom there will be a display of projects, some of which have been completed earlier in the year, and others which are now being studied.

Mr. and Mrs. Fennel and small son John Harry made the trip from Manila on the China Clipper. Mr. Fennel, a Sierra Madrean, is senior meteorologist of Pan-American Airways and has been stationed in Manila for the last three years. He and Mrs. Fennel will spend a month in California before going to New York where they will remain a month and then return to Manila for another year.

Fire Scorches Altar At St. Rita's Shrine

An altar cloth at St. Rita's church was burned sometime last Thursday afternoon, it was reported by Father Augustine Scannell, who investigated an odor of smoke and discovered in addition to the cloth, which is made of an inflammable material, that the altar itself was slightly scorched around the edges. The fire could have been caused by an elderly person or a child in moving the candles from one side of the altar to the other.

MEET A NEIGHBOR

By MIRIAM OSNESS

MEET WILLIAM DANIEL RICHARDS... Sierra Madre's fire chief. Became one of California's rare native sons in 1888. Had a burning desire to be a fireman. Attended Los Angeles schools. Was never the teacher's pet. Had too much pep. Graduated from the Commercial High School the last year it was in existence. Went in the grocery business with his father. Remained for 12 years. Sold out the business to join the army. Was in too much of a hurry. Fell down an elevator shaft. Was laid up for a year. Worked in the shipyards following his recovery. Bought the grocery store on Sturtevant Road in 1919. Moved to Sierra Madre. Joined the local police force in 1927. Like all Sierra Madre officers is both fireman and policeman. Met his wife at a party. Married her on her birthday 27 years ago. Says his good appetite is a sign of her culinary abilities. Can't boil water, himself, without burning it. Is partial to red, lavender and Spencer Tracy. Dislikes codfish, hot weather and sliphod people. Snores. Tracks mud in the house. Winds his watch regularly twice a day. Enjoys working in the garden, spinach and watching baseball games. Favors quiz programs and good music over the air. Relaxes in slippers. Likes a big cup of coffee, brim full. Is a registered Democrat but votes according to times and conditions. Likes to ride around the country. Intends to do it all the time when gets wealthy. Loves nature. Names "Moonlight and Roses" as his favorite piece. Got plenty of moonlight the 12 years he worked at night. Is serene, exacting and methodical. Considers Sierra Madreans law abiding. Attributes the new outstanding low in fire loss to keeping the people fire conscious. The people attribute it to him.

Accept Resignation Of Mr. Pritchard With Deep Regret

Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard's resignation as pastor of the Congregational Church, effective June 1, was accepted "with deep regret" by the congregation Sunday. Convers Twycross presided at a called business meeting of the congregation following the morning service and action was taken. The written resignation was so worded that there was no alternative to accepting it, church officials said.

Wednesday evening, May 1, at an official board of the church meeting, a committee of seven will be appointed to choose a successor to Mr. Pritchard and to provide supply pastors until the pulpit is permanently filled.

Another Load Saddled On Newspapers

Tax On Subscriptions Added To Other Publication Difficulties

A three per cent tax on their paid subscriptions retroactive from the first half of 1937, is the latest burden heaped upon newspapers of California. Assessment notices from the State Board of Equalization, based upon an interpretation of the sales tax act by the Attorney General, were received this week.

The multiplicity of new taxes imposed during recent years, operation of the Wagner act, increased cost of paper, materials and equipment, and generally higher operating and production costs has caused many publications throughout the state to suspend and many others have been forced into consolidations. More than one-half of the newspapers have been obliged to increase their subscription rate and practically all have had to increase their advertising rate to meet the mounting cost of operation of

Ask Ball Fans To Turn Out On Monday

Interest Of Men And Women Will Decide Whether City Is To Have Games

First ball game of the 1940 season will be played at Sierra Madre grammar school diamond Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Every adult interested in the game is urged to turn out at the field. Women as well as men are invited to be on hand, whether they have been personally contacted or not.

A committee composed of Edward LaLone, Jobie Kiggins, Waverly Pratt and Kenneth Ingraham was named at a meeting of men and women baseball fans at the city hall Monday evening. This meeting was called by the youth activities committee of Sierra Madre for all adults who were interested in formation of ball clubs. The committee will compile a list of Sierra Madreans who are interested in baseball and will make personal contacts.

Not as many people as was anticipated turned out for Monday's meeting, but it is hoped that at the school grounds April 29 there will be a good crowd. The goal of the youth activities committee of Sierra Madre, sponsors of adult baseball, is to have enough players for four teams.

New Entertainment Field For Kiwanis Opened Up By Trip

A new field of entertainment was opened to Kiwanians and their wives Tuesday evening—that of taking educational trips through Los Angeles and vicinity to visit different businesses and see how they operate. This idea was the outcome of a trip through a Hollywood broadcasting station, where club members and wives were transported by bus following a dinner meeting at Wistaria Vine Gardens.

They were escorted on a specially conducted tour through the plant.

Thirty-three Kiwanians and their wives attended the affair which was arranged by Carl

Edison Tower Comes Down; Wires Are To Go Underground

An unsightly high tower and overhead wires at the Southern California Edison Company's substation on the south side of Bonita avenue will no longer be an eyesore to residents in that section of Sierra Madre. The city has been negotiating with the Edison company for some time to place the wires underground, thus improving the general appearance of the avenue. Work on removing the tower, which will now be the same height as the building, started last week. Estimated cost of the job will be $5,000.

Two new heavy poles were installed to carry the 16,000 volt high tension lines. The old poles on either side will be removed and 19 wires eliminated by being brought down the new poles and then underground. The Edison Company agreed to move the wire following an informal discussion with the city council.

Gray Skies Bring Temperature Far Below Normal

Overcast skies and temperatures considerably below normal characterized the weather in Sierra Madre this week. Cloudy weather predominated in practically all San Gabriel valley cities, and made residents wonder if the clouds were holding a convention here.

Temperature readings for the week are:

Rainfall for week, .06 inches; total for season to date, 24.32 inches. Normal for season, to date 22.31 inches.

Gloom Holds Blooms Back; Wistaria Fete To Go On

Through the intervention of the weather, which placed Sierra Madre's famous wistaria blossoms "on ice" during the past week, the Wistaria Fete season has been extended through the remainder of the month.

The Fete, originally scheduled to close last Sunday, will carry over the coming week-end with a series of programs of special interest to garden and music lovers. Charles Gibbs Adams' plan for a unified Southern California planting campaign to line the streets of all communities with flowering fruit trees, timed to blossom in sequence, will be discussed by Mrs. W. J. Lawless, chairman of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club garden section, at the regular Sunday evening supper.

Starting early Saturday morning with a breakfast meeting of the Pacific Rose Society, the weekend festivities continue until Sunday evening when Ernest Williams is to talk on the "Valley of Fire" and desert flowers, presenting colored illustrations. The Rose Society, coming here as one of the final events of its National Convention now being held in Pasadena, will breakfast at 8:30 o'clock Saturday and be welcomed by former Governor Frank Merriam.

Alarmed Citizen Calls Firemen Out

Smoke from brush burning at the end of Mt. Wilson trail Wednesday afternoon looked dangerous to a fire conscious citizen who called the fire department. However, a permit for burning had been issued by Fire Chief W. D. Richards, although the job took longer than it was anticipated. So, the fire trucks returned to the station.

Entry List For Tomorrow's Mt. Wilson Trail Race Sets New Record

Athletic Events Between Features—Award Prizes At Dinner

Beautiful cups, trophies and medals will be awarded to winners in tomorrow's Mt. Wilson trail race at a Victory dinner to be held at 6:30 p.m. at Wistaria Vine Gardens. Mayor William J. Schiltz will award the prizes to the winning contestants, assisted by Fred LaLone, manager of the race. Harry Lange, president of the Chamber of Commerce, sponsors, will preside. In addition to the evening dinner, a luncheon will be served at noon at the Vine for about 15 forest service officials who will add in tomorrow's annual event in which a record number of entries is reported.

There will be six races—the first one starting at 10 a.m. The big event of the day will take place at 1:30 o'clock. This is for men 17 to 35 years of age. The concluding race—which will be for women—will begin at 2 o'clock.

Because of A.A.U. facilities, contestants may enter the race at the post, Mr. LaLone announced. The Chamber of Commerce joined the A.A.U. this year, making it possible for the Sierra Madre organization to award prizes and conduct the race. In former years, it has been necessary to conduct the race under the auspices of a Los Angeles organization.

Ribbons will be awarded winners in the boys' races and marathons which will precede the Mt. Wilson race and will be carried on during the day between starting hours of the different classes in the Mt. Wilson race.

Boy Scouts and CCC enrollees will act as guards along the 13.4 mile climb from Sierra Madre to Fern Lodge and return, with first aid stations along the way, and an ambulance at Chantry Flats. A radio transmitter will broadcast the event, and television recordings will be made.

Arrangements were made with the Sierra Madre grammar school for shower and rest room facilities for men and women. An attendant will be on hand to aid contestants when they have finished the course.

Sierra Madre Now On State's Safety Roll Of Honor

Sierra Madre, with seven other California cities, was placed on the California Safety Council Achievement Roll, this week. The honor came for 100 per cent cut in traffic fatalities during 1939.

For its record of saving the greatest number of human lives, Glendale won the top award, a handsome trophy, as well as the distinction of being California's safest city for 1939. In addition to the William May Garland safest city trophy, Glendale also won first place in cities of 50,000 to 100,000 population for saving 13 lives in traffic. Runners-up for the safety trophy were Bakersfield, which led its class of cities of 25,000 to 50,000, and Richmond.

James Heasley will continue to operate the Canyon Park Swimming Pool for another five-year period, the council having adopted a resolution authorizing Mayor Schiltz to sign the necessary lease and contract. The city engineer was directed to furnish a estimate of the cost of center striping roads in Marlborough Terrace and the Canyon Park area.

L. S. Griswold asked in a letter for removal of a very tall sycamore tree in the middle of Brookside lane in Canyon Park and the city engineer was directed to investigate the necessity and cost of such removal.

The various buildings of which I have spoken were new buildings and were but the outward manifestations of an awakening public spirit, which was manifest in some of our organizations. The Woman's Club, founded by Madame Osgood, was in 1926 the leading influence among the secular organizations. Mrs. Gilbert Bovard was president and the excellent work done in her day was ably followed during the succeeding years when Mrs. E. E. Bacon, Mrs. Hudson Proctor, Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger, Mrs. J. H. Robertson, Mrs. W. J. Lawless, Mrs. Fletcher White and Mrs. Al Myers were in charge.

City Affairs All Set For New Term

Officials Make Appointments And Council Committees Named

The Sierra Madre council and officers completed their reorganization following the recent city election Tuesday evening when Mayor Schiltz announced his committee appointments.

City Treasurer Carl Pegler and City Clerk Waverly E. Pratt filed their new bonds which were formally accepted by the council. Mr. Pegler then re-appointed Mr. Pratt as deputy city treasurer at $40 a month and Mr. Pratt submitted a letter in which he announced the appointment of Mrs. Florence Jensen as deputy city clerk at a salary of $35 per month, the term for which Daniel H. Lewis was appointed having expired. Mrs. Jensen draws a salary of $80 a month also as clerk of the water department. During the past two years she has drawn the salary of $35 allocated for the deputy city clerk but the title was held by City Purchasing Agent Daniel H. Lewis, who is also assistant superintendent of the street and assistant superintendent of the water department.

Mr. Lewis drew no salary under his deputy clerk title. In his letter to the council Mr. Pratt stated the duties of Mr. Lewis in his other positions did not permit his constant presence at the city hall and that the appointment of Mrs. Jensen was desirable under the circumstances.

After fixing the combined salary of Mrs. Jensen at $115 a month, the council re-appointed Mr. Pratt auditor of the water department at a salary of $125 a month.

Mayor Schiltz announced committees of the council would remain as formerly.

Contract for an insurance appraisal of city property was awarded to the Tait Appraisal Company of Los Angeles for $225, the appraisal to be completed before May 10. Various contracts aggregating $940.53 were awarded for meters, valves, reducers, pipe and fittings necessary for installation of the new booster pump for the water department which was recently authorized.

James Heasley will continue to operate the Canyon Park Swimming Pool for another five-year period, the council having adopted a resolution authorizing Mayor Schiltz to sign the necessary lease and contract. The city engineer was directed to furnish a estimate of the cost of center striping roads in Marlborough Terrace and the Canyon Park area.

L. S. Griswold asked in a letter for removal of a very tall sycamore tree in the middle of Brookside lane in Canyon Park and the city engineer was directed to investigate the necessity and cost of such removal.

WHEN I CAME TO SIERRA MADRE

By REV. ARTHUR O. PRITCHARD

IN MY LETTER of last week I omitted to mention three important buildings erected since 1926. First, the beautiful public school on Highland avenue which took the place of the old wooden structure long outgrown and inadequate; second, the synagogue on North Lima which takes care of the needs of our Jewish brethren, and third, the Monastery of the Passionist Fathers on its very slightly location at the head of North Lima street. These have been most worthy additions to Sierra Madre's development.

The various buildings of which I have spoken were new buildings and were but the outward manifestations of an awakening public spirit, which was manifest in some of our organizations. The Woman's Club, founded by Madame Osgood, was in 1926 the leading influence among the secular organizations. Mrs. Gilbert Bovard was president and the excellent work done in her day was

ROSE PRINCESS WEDDING IS BRILLIANT AFFAIR

IN THE presence of five hundred relatives and friends, Miss Dorothy Levinson, prominent young Sierra Madrean, and one of the princesses of the 1940 Pasadena Tournament of Roses, was married to Sidney Factor, youngest son of the late Max Factor, at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Max Factor in Beverly Hills.

The ceremony was performed by Rabbi S. M. Neches of Los Angeles, before the fire place which was banked with white gladioli. Miss Levinson, who was unattended, wore an exquisite Empire style gown of marquisette with lace inserts over taffeta, and was crowned with an heirloom rose point veil. Lace also frilled her bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

In keeping with traditions of the Jewish wedding ceremony, the bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Samuel Levinson, who was gowned in blue lace and wore a corsage of white orchids; her grandmother, Mrs. Celia Kvitky, who wore black lace and a white orchid corsage, and her eldest brother, Robert Levinson. Mr. Factor was given away by his mother and eldest brother, David Factor.

A profusion of white stocks, snapdragons and gladioli decorated the Factor home, where a reception was held from 4 until 7 o'clock. Immediately afterward, Mr. and Mrs. Factor left for Lake Arrowhead where they remained until Wednesday when they left for a six months tour of Canada. Upon their return they will go to South America, where Mr. Factor is being sent on business. For the last eight and one-half months Mr. Factor has been in the Orient on business and announcement of the wedding date was not made until his return from Manila last week.

Mrs. Factor attended Pasadena Junior College. Mr. Factor is a graduate of the University of Southern California where he was a member of the Zeta Beta Tau.

MENDELSSOHN'S "Spring Song" is a swing song now and the onions that bloomed in Gilbert and Sullivan are hot-house raised all year 'round. Bright-blooming bonnets have been perched on heads since Christmas, bare feet have been peeping from sandals right along; but just the same, Spring continues to surge through this shocking disregard for season and makes her blithe presence felt in every human heart! Comes a day when you want to sit in the park, just have to buy some violets, decide to cook some greens. That's the day to bring Springtime to your table and keep her there!

DAFFY DOWN-DILLY CAKE
2 cupfuls sifted cake flour
2 teaspoonfuls double-action baking powder
1 teaspoonful salt
1/2 cupful shortening
1 1/2 tablespoonfuls grated orange rind
1 cupful sugar
2 eggs
3/4 cupful orange juice
Sift flour, measure; sift again with baking powder. Add salt to shortening with grated orange rind and cream well, gradually adding the sugar, and creaming until light and fluffy. Add the eggs, one at a time, and beat well after each addition. Add flour mixture, alternately with the orange juice to the creamed mixture, mixing well after each addition. Turn into two 8 1/2 inch greased layer cake pans and bake in a moderately hot gas oven (375°) 25 minutes. Frost with Sungold Frosting.

SUNGOLD FROSTING
1 1/2 cupfuls sugar
1/2 cupful water
1 tablespoonful white corn syrup
2 egg whites
1 1/2 tablespoonfuls grated orange rind
Put sugar, water and corn syrup in saucepan; stir over low flame until sugar dissolves. Boil rapidly until syrup spins a thread when dropped from tip of spoon (238° F.). Beat egg whites (at room temperature) until stiff, but still shiny. Continue beating while pouring hot syrup in fine stream over egg whites. Add grated orange rind and continue mixing until mixture is stiff enough to spread. Note: Cake may be made with 1 whole egg and 2 yolks, thus leaving the two whites necessary for the frosting; or the two yolks left from the whites used in the frosting may be used in making a custard filling for the cake.

BANANA APRICOT FLUFF
1 pkg. orange-flavored gelatin
1 cupful hot water
1/4 cupful sugar
1/4 teaspoonful salt
1/4 cupful orange juice
2 cupfuls thinly sliced ripe bananas (2 to 3 bananas)
1-3 cupful apricot puree
Dissolve gelatin in hot water; add sugar, salt and orange juice. Chill until cold and syrupy. Combine bananas and apricot puree; add to gelatin mixture; beat until thick and fluffy like whipped cream. Chill in automatic refrigerator. 6 to 8 servings. May be molded or not, as desired.

YOUR PUBLIC DUTY

It must be the hope of all men, viewing nations given over to brutish strife, persecution, and hate, that tomorrow's world will bring a better sense of fellowship, morality, and fair dealing into the family of nations.

But to find support for such a hope, where can America turn but to her schools? For it is there that tomorrow's generation is being trained, acquiring the beliefs, social habits and ideals which will shape this nation's course in the world not many years hence.

The role that schools play is therefore all-important, and well merits the setting aside of a Public Schools week, April 22 to 29—a special occasion for parents and adults to visit classrooms and obtain for themselves a vivid, first hand glimpse of the new methods and means by which the public school system is ably and enthusiastically fulfilling its role.

It was California who, in 1921, first celebrated this week. The response was so hearty that other states have since eagerly adopted the idea until now it commands virtually nationwide observance.

California, a pioneer in many fields, in this instance pioneered another worthy effort to quicken

AMERICA LEARNS THERE IS NO SHORT CUT TO PROSPERITY SAYS NOTED ECONOMIST

By RALPH H. TAYLOR
(Executive Secretary, Agricultural Council of California)

AMERICA has been traveling at such break-neck speed during the past decade, and getting nowhere, that it is time, perhaps, to slow down and read the road signs!

Any farmer, for example, who placed his faith in the theory of "abundance through scarcity," has learned by sad experience that plowing under is anything but a profitable enterprise.

Likewise, business men who hung on to Uncle Sam's coat tails, hoping thereby to climb the ladder of success, are badly disillusioned.

And members of organized labor, who were told that the National Labor Relations Board would boost their paychecks and solve all their difficulties, are hanging on the ropes along with their employers.

There is no short-cut to prosperity. America has learned that, during the last few years of turmoil and heartache, if it has learned nothing else. There is no government panacea for all our ills and lack of sustenance. Certainly we have learned that!

Hard though it may be to confess it, probably it is time to admit the truth of the sage saying that "We cannot hope to accomplish the millennium in a biennium!"

With a problem as deep-seated as our present economic difficulty—which involves all our hopes, ambitions, desires, and objectives—major adjustments cannot be made hurriedly or haphazardly, without causing untold suffering and serious dislocations. Quick cure-alls and radical remedies, the last few years have taught us, spawn evils and injustices far greater than those they seek to public interest in what will ever be one of democracy's front-line defenses—the classroom. In maintaining a public school system second to none, this state shows itself alert to the perpetual need of keeping those defenses stoutly bulwarked.

But pay a visit to the classrooms yourself. Public Schools Week deserves your participation, for in our schools the form of tomorrow's world is taking shape. The chances are you will come away with renewed faith in the future of America and in the school system where youth is serving its apprenticeship for citizenship in a democracy.

And creation of class consciousness can never bring prosperity or happiness to any nation or any society. In fact, only as class conflict is eliminated is there any hope of achieving the goal of every citizen—economic peace and security!

Whether California and the Nation have learned that lesson remains to be seen, but certain it is that the handwriting is on the wall.

In Germany, Italy, Russia and the countries of Middle Europe, where totalitarian governments, under dictators, hold despotic sway, there is no middle class. It has been obliterated. And in those countries, where the thrifty middle class has been eliminated, labor's rights have also been blotted out. There are no labor unions; there are no labor rights—except such "rights" as the dictators may decree, and wage scales are lower than this country has ever tolerated.

In those countries, there are two classes—the very poor, and the very rich. There is no middle ground. It is well that America should consider that, for the same forces are at work here, which played havoc there.

Congressman Bruce Barton of New York, a successful business man, and a thoughtful student of the American scene, recently made the challenging statement that "high taxes and low business" are threatening to wipe out the industrious middle class in the United States—and that homeowners as a group, are "a dying generation."

America can't accomplish the millennium in a biennium. But if America learns to "live and let live," to abolish class jealousies and class hatreds, it will have come a long way on the road back. That, perhaps, is the lesson this Nation can learn if it slows down and reads the road signs!

Arcadia Restricts Its Business Area

Arcadia voters turned down the proposal of Baldwin ranch subdividers to create another business area within Arcadia's city limits in the new Santa Anita Village in the western end of Arcadia at the April 9 election. The majority was 391. Even more emphatically the voters rejected the proposal that the contentious city that is the home of the world's greatest race track, engage a city manager. The vote was 685 for and 1,923 against.

The fast growing Santa Anita village is widely separated from Arcadia's business district and by way of Michellinda blvd. conveniently near to Sierra Madre, so that it offers a fertile field for live Sierra Madre merchants.

BUT LOOK BEHIND YOU!

South of the border, down Mexico way, a kettle of trouble is brewing. Chairman Dies, head of the Un-American Investigating committee, hinted at it a fortnight ago. Now confirmation comes from officials of the Mexican government itself who report that secret police have unearthed evidence that a small army of Nazi and Communist agents have joined hands to foment a civil war in that country. Its aims: to seize political control of Mexico, divert American attention from Europe, and exploit Mexico as a base for spreading the revolutionary movement of Nazi-Communism in other Latin American countries. Thus, at any rate, runs the story and in it there may be elements of truth. History never repeats itself, but some of its patterns are strikingly familiar. No long memory is needed to recall that following the outbreak of the World War almost identical efforts were made to get the United States embroiled with Mexico, and to a certain extent they succeeded. These efforts may be even more successful this time than then, if the civil war plot proves to be more fact than fiction. It is unlikely the United States would ever permit its neighbor republic to fall into the control of the Nazi-Communists.

In the movies when the wintry scenes are filmed, actors hold a special candy pill in their mouths—as it dissolves, it gives off a vapor, which realistically simulates breath in cold air.

That jeweled chain of tropical islands, the Dutch East Indies, gleams brightly in the Pacific's great constellation of islands. Their luster has never been lost on Japan and the prospect of a German invasion into the Netherlands, threatening that country's sovereignty, has made the Netherlands' East Indies beckon to Nippon more appealing than ever before. Rich in rubber, tin, and other raw materials, they have been a fountainhead of Dutch prosperity for three centuries, and for America long a vital source of supplies. To Japan, their wealth is almost the perfect answer to her dream of Pan-Asiatic conquest. Foreign Minister Arita hinted as much last week. But his hint was firmly, quietly, and almost immediately rebuked by Secretary of State Hull who said in words just as clear, but more diplomatic: "Please keep your hands off the Dutch West Indies." To which Japan has replied: "We are very much pained. We have no designs on the islands." The Secretary of State evidently made his point plain.

BASKETBALL REVEALED AS FAVORITE INDOOR SPORT OF SIERRA MADRE'S YOUTH

Report Of Youth Committee Shows It Popular With Both Boys And Girls

SIERRA MADRE boys and girls are definitely interested in basketball. This was disclosed beyond question when questionnaires sent out some time ago by the city's youth committee asking the desires of youngsters for clubs or sports were returned. More boys and girls had checked basketball than any other sport. But, not until the Congregational church hall was rented by the Kiwanis club boys and girls committee under the direction of S. E. McElfresh, and filled to near capacity weekly, did the committee realize what a need there was in the city for such activity.

In a report compiled by Mr. McElfresh covering the period from January 25, when the weekly practices started, until closing date for the basketball season, 372 boys attended and 193 girls. Practices, held for a six-week period, drew out an average of 32 girls a night, and 62 boys. The girls' attendance tripled that of last year, and the boys more than doubled their 1939 record.

"We had a very successful season," said Mr. McElfresh. "It was a pleasant surprise, putting it mildly, to have such large crowds turn out weekly. The boys and girls committee is especially grateful to Loren Pratt, coach, and his assistants, 'Ugh' Ingraham, Kenneth Allan, Harry Herberger, Virginia Smith, and the Kiwanians who were on deck each practice night."

Massey Brings "Abe Lincoln In Illinois" To Pasadena

"Abe Lincoln In Illinois" being the attraction of the evening, a number of Sierra Madre playgoers are planning to make up theatre parties at Pasadena Civic Auditorium, Wednesday, May 1, at 8:30 p.m., when Raymond Massey, in person, brings to life the character of the Great Emancipator.

Wise acres, both in and out of the theatre, maintain that "Abe Lincoln In Illinois," latest Pulitzer Prize play, is the great American drama. Those who have seen the stage production say the author and star have drawn their vivid picture of Lincoln as a complex, brooding creature of many moods, a strong, homey, melancholy man of high destiny; a complete rounded, inspired and inspiring character.

natural attractions have already drawn so many capable, experienced people that the present demand is more than satisfied, or words to that effect.

Californians—more than ever before—are anxious to have their say in deciding the course of events in this presidential election year. If present figures accurately reflect public interest, a bigger legion of voters will descend on the polls on May 7 for the presidential primary than in any other election in California's history.

Registration rolls in the State's 58 counties today boast approximately 3,650,000 voters—a record-breaker. Candidates can't complain of any lack of public interest this year. They'll get out the vote with ease. All office-seekers have to worry about now is where the vote is going.

LOCAL YOUTH SECOND IN JAVELIN THROW

In spite of a badly injured shoulder, Hugo DeGroot, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. DeGroot of East Orange Grove avenue, captured second place for the javelin throw at the UC-USC track meet at Berkeley Friday, throwing a bit over 207 feet. Young DeGroot will also compete with the UCLA athletes this Saturday, in the USC-UCLA meet at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

ILL-FATED LOVERS IN RAMONA

CNPA, Inc. Service.

"Ramona," the thrilling and dramatic outdoor play of early California, which opened its 17th season Saturday, April 20, in Ramona Bowl near Hemet, will be given again tomorrow and Sunday afternoon and repeated May 4 and 5.

In the picture above are Alessandro and Ramona, ill-fated lovers created by Helen Hunt Jackson in her romantic novel. The 1940 production is more exciting than ever.

Expert horsemen have been engaged for the dashing posse scenes, 125 singers are heard in choral numbers, a score of Spanish dancers appear in the gay fiesta and Indian lads from the U. S. Government's Sherman Institute execute the authentic Indian ceremonials.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carter and family are moving tomorrow from 222 West Highland avenue to 480 North Mt. Trail. Police Chief and Mrs. Gordon McMillan are planning to establish their home at 222 West Highland avenue.

RESPONDING to the irresistible lure which good music always exerts in a cultural community, a large group of Sierra Madre men and women gathered at the Woman's Club Wednesday afternoon to enjoy the concert presented by the Nysaeen and Euterpean singers of Pasadena Junior College.

Opening the program, Miss Celeste Clauser, presented the Spanish dance "Gitanza" and with her unusual ability and almost perfect timing with her castenets, completely captivated the audience which responded warmly. Miss Clauser was accompanied by Miss Margaret Elmer, and later in the program presented a Chilean peasant dance and a polka, with castenets.

Following Miss Clauser, Marcus Orosco, Lyle Laws, Rodney Munson and Raymond Valois presented a group of four numbers, that were generously applauded.

The Euterpean group accompanied by Phillip Peterson and directed by Miss Carrie Sharp, sang "With the Dawn," Rubenstein; the "Toreador Song," from Carmen, and closed with an excellent interpretation of the Ravel "Bolero."

Appearing last on the program the Nysaeen Singers, a group of 32 girls, directed and accompanied by Miss Lulu Parmley, sang "The Blind Ploughman," Clarke; "Clouds," Bircok; and the Nobel Cain arrangement of the Negro Spiritual "Wasn't That A Wide River." Listening to this fine group one had the sensation of hearing only one huge and beautiful instrument, which only the attainment of a high degree of artistry makes possible and which is not often achieved by a group of young singers. Closing the program the two groups joined in singing the PJC school song "Sturdy as the Mountains."

Before arrival of the singers, Mrs. John H. Robertson, club president, expressed her personal appreciation as well as that of the body of the club, to Mrs. W. J. Lawless for the splendid cooperation she gave during the Wistaria Fete, and personally presented to her a gardenia corsage. Mrs. Robertson also voiced formal thanks to Bruce McGill of the Wistaria Vine Gardens, and personally presented gardenia corsages to Miss Hazel James Ferguson, general chairman of the Fete committee, from the Woman's Club; Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger, tea chairman throughout the Fete, and to Miss Clara Sykes, who was responsible for all cakes baked for the club during the festival.

Mrs. Steinberger expressed appreciation for tireless assistance to Miss Adele Doty, Thomas Polgreen and Everett Gerty, and with Mrs. Roberts and the Fete committee, thanked all women of the community who generously gave the club their help.

Mrs. Steinberger and Miss Ferguson then announced that all items remaining unsold at the close of the club's participation would be sold to help defray the expense, and in a short time disposed of most of their merchandise.

Mrs. J. S. Billheimer, who was responsible for bringing the choral groups to the club, was tea hostess for the day and was assisted by Mmes. Homer Glidden, Nestor Young, C. W. Jones, E. E. Bacon and H. B. Hersey. Members of the decorating committee who under the chairmanship of Mrs. C. E. Rappolee had decorated the clubhouse with beautiful baskets of spring flowers, were Miss Ruth West, Mrs. W. L. Rhoades and Mrs. G. M. McRoberts. Presiding at the tea table were Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, guests of honor for the day, and Mrs. Rappolee.

Arcadia Buys Water Rights Of Rancho Santa Anita

Rancho Santa Anita's valuable water rights became the property of the city of Arcadia last week when City Attorney James C. Bone filed the grant deed and an approving resolution marking completion of the transaction. Purchase price was $34,063.

Arcadia officials in a joint formal statement said: "With the recording of the deed transferring all water rights of Rancho Santa Anita to the city of Arcadia, the most important acquisition in the history of Arcadia has been completed. It has been estimated, conservatively, that the cost of this project will be paid from savings in pumping expense in the next six years. Our water department is run on a very economical basis and with these newly acquired water rights and continued economy Arcadia should continue to have cheap water in spite of our remarkable growth."

FIRE FLAMES

By One of the Boys

Well, brothers, if we do hear from Pat Harlan again it will probably be away late next year. Little did he know that when he and Cyester insisted that we gather together five firemen and oppose the Angelus Forest men in a bowling match last Monday evening, that we could get together such champs as Andy Liscombe, Pop Froehlich and Barney Davis. That recent beating they gave us, sort of went to the Forestry men's upper regions, but the scores they looked at after the games on Monday evening, brought an expression to Cyester's face that resembled a fellow that had just lost $10.00 on a horse's nose. We sure did "mow 'em down." The total pins for the three games was Sierra Madre F. D. 2221, the Forestry men 2134.

Representing Sierra Madre were such artists as Babbitt, Liscombe, Leo Dougherty, Joe Swanson, Roy Davis, Pop Froehlich and Jim Heasley. For Angelus Forest there were several heart broken jumpers after the game, among whom were Pat Harlan, Cyester, Bud Marsh, Earl Marsh, Deiner and Vic Harris.

The beating the hill men received was such a shock to them that it is very doubtful whether Cyester will ever come out of the hills again, unless it be after dark, and then he will probably wear a disguise. The Marsh brothers were not the usual aid to their team. Maybe they took heed from their hometown neighbor's warnings.

What A Girl Sees Ramblin' 'Round

● Forest rangers at the Santa Anita station are beginning to wonder if there's something "mousy" about their set-up. Not their bowling... which fire department kiegler would probably describe by using a five letter word sounding much the same... but their quarters. We learned that... fire patrolmen's trucks... are parked and put up for the winter... then about this time of year... when the fire season is just around the corner... the trucks are taken out... gone over and tested for use... Just recently the rangers went out to get their fire patrol truck... Under the front seat they found a nest of field mice... and trying to catch a bunch of squirming, scampering mice is no small order... Then, they learned that Keith Kaylor... at Chilo... had the same difficulty... He went out to loosen up a car and found the exhaust pipe filled with acorns... A field mouse was the culprit... Kaylor was glad he discovered the situation before he started the car... or he might have wrecked his motor...

● 'Way over in Honolulu where the city's board of health is engaged in a rat extermination campaign... a housewife reported that two huge rodents... chased her pet Pekinese across a vacant lot... and into the house... The dog made the front door by a rat's whisker... she said...

● Since we have openly admitted we snitch ideas and articles... we were handed a paragraph to pass on to other Sierra Mad-reans... "You probably wouldn't worry so much about what people think of you if you knew how seldom they do." ... And then, "We are always complaining that our days are too few and at the same time acting as though there would be no end to them."

● A Sierra Madrean whose home is located next to a vacant lot where clover grows profusely... is having trouble with her garden... She fertilizes and takes excellent care of it... and the outcome is that clovers also get the benefit of the attention... and almost choke her flowers... The lady suggests that owners of vacant lots be required to keep their grounds free of pests... so that next door neighbors may keep their garden from becoming enveloped in quickly spreading clover...

● Various suggestions have been made for beautification of the tiny "park" in Kersting Court... Petunias have been planted... and notwithstanding dogs... and boys... who trespass at night... during the day we manage to keep most of them off with black looks... they are growing... some of them are growing... at any rate... An idea was passed on to us last week... It is a drinking fountain for dogs... a low affair... at the base of the regular fountain... There is no place in Sierra Madre where dogs can drink during the hot summer months... the suggestor said... and below the fountain is the logical place to put one... We don't know... Curtis Miller of Carl Hansen's garage made another suggestion... He said why not a sign under the pepper tree, mentioning the fact that it was a park and "no trespassing"...

● Sierra Madreans who remember the lovely Mother's Day window at Rikeman's... will be interested to know... that the display took fourth prize... The color scheme was Nile Green, pink and silver... National Wildlife Restoration Poster stamps for 1940... are now available... Reproductions of birds, mammals, fish and wildflowers are from paintings by America's outstanding nature artists... We liked the stamp showing Northern Pike... and remember tales of friends and family... who struggled with the voracious fish on trips through northern Minnesota and Canada...

Fish Dinners For Many-If Luck Is Good

Mr. Walton's Local Disciples All Set For Trout Season Opening

A lot of them don't know yet where they are going but quite a party of Sierra Madreans will be whipping Southern California lakes and streams at daylight next Wednesday morning when the trout fishing season opens.

Judge Tom Neale has been making "soundings" in an effort to locate the most likely fishing spot and it is probable that quite a party of local disciples of the Walton will be wading and casting in the streams of San Antonio Canyon where thousands of state propagated trout were planted above Camp Baldy recently. The fish are at least six inches in length and are large enough to at least partially satisfy fishermen who will be out after the limit May 1. This is the first planting in local streams since the flood of 1938, when nearly all of them in Southern California were cleaned out.

Excellent fishing is anticipated along the High Sierras in Inyo and Mono counties where there have been heavy plantings by the California Fish and Game Commission.

Bass fishing has been exceptionally good early this season. Large bass, from 5 to 10 pounds, have been taken regularly from Mead lake and at Parker dam. In San Diego county bass, bluegill and crappie have been running well at Lake Henshaw and a good summer season is expected in the southern county lakes.

Among Sierra Madreans who have already oiled up their rods and reels and taken out their annual fisherman's licenses are Judge Neale, Harry Lange, Joe Swanson, Lee Hibbs, Dr. John Woehler, "Doc" Peterson, and Fred LaLone. Just back from the hospital it is probable that Police Chief McMillan will miss his first May 1 excursion in many years.

taken a prize during World War days by being the largest chapter according to population in the country, when Mrs. M. D. Welsher was chairman, had laid back on its record, but was taking a new lease on life under the chairmanship of W. R. Humphries. After his leadership of several years Miss Marion Vannier, Mrs. Clarence Bowen and Mrs. Harry Holland assisted in the office by Miss Judson, kept the beneficial work of the chapter on a high plane. With the coming of C. W. Jones as chairman, the organization exceeded all records since the war in membership and in service. The office now under the administration of Mrs. Frances Davis continues the general welfare work of Sierra Madre making the offices of city nurse, held by Mrs. Jensen, Mrs. Vedder, Mrs. Roberts, and Mrs. Barker, unnecessary. Tom Schwartz, the present chairman, is a worthy successor of these able leaders.

The PTA was a thriving organization when I came here and since 1926 I recall the following presidents: Mrs. Joe Asbury, Mrs. William Middough, Mrs. A. E. Pulling, Mrs. W. O. Preston, Mrs. Boyd Keith, Mrs. J. Irish, Mrs. Paul Carter, Mrs. Ross Marshall. They have done fine work in welding the school to the community by making us all feel our responsibility for the welfare of the children.

The Kiwanis club is the one with which I had been most closely associated, as its beginning was the first year after my arrival. This organization owes its origin here to the efforts of Ray Grant and G. I. Farman. Its first president was Tasker Webster, whom I remember because he could not bring himself to address a clergyman by his first name. This group of men meeting weekly in their luncheons, have developed a spirit of comradeship which has been very effective in the life of Sierra Madre. Ask any member and he will tell of friendships formed and interests developed among men of different groups not ordinarily brought together. The service to the underprivileged children in the care of their teeth and eyes, contributions to the milk fund of the PTA, co-operation with the YMCA, YWCA and Boy Scouts by providing summer vacations for children, have been of great worth. Notable also are the baseball, basketball, and swimming opportunities provided for the teen age groups. In late years it has sponsored the Community fund which has made possible the efficiency of the Boy Scouts, the Camp Fire Girls and the YMCA in our community.

Five of the original members still remain in the organization: Charles B. Klunk, who has not missed a meeting since the organization; Eugene Burbank, Frank Spencer, Waverly Pratt and the writer. While we ordinarily think of the churches as the leading spiritual influence in the community, Sierra Madre in no small measure, has been indebted to these organizations for its spirit of unity, good-will and cooperation. Let us hope that much more will come in the years ahead.

Mr. and Mrs. Newman Essick of 560 West Montecito avenue are expected home this week from an early spring vacation at Yosemite.

LAST STREAMLINER HALTS AND SANTA ANITA STATION IS NO MORE; TO RAZE BUILDING

"Lucky" Baldwin's Agreement With Santa Fe Set Aside By State Commission

A romantic period of railroad-ing was ended Tuesday when the historic Santa Anita railway station, long used by early Sierra Madreans, was closed forever. E. J. "Lucky" Baldwin built the station about 1883, and stipulated that all Santa Fe trains should stop at the station on demand when he granted the right of way through his ranch, once threatening to tear up the tracks when the railroad showed a disposition to disregard the agreement.

Sierra Madre has sent its east bound mail out from the Santa Anita station for many years, starting with the days of Samuel Twycross and his stage. Now, with the razing of the station, Postmaster Caukin says the mail will be jerked off a mechanical arm on the run.

Lack of business was the reason for closing the station, since there were no regular passengers and the telegraph office was no longer needed. Since it was just a heavy expense to the Santa Fe railroad, the company asked permission of the California Railroad Commission to close the station, and when Station Agent D. F. Bowe moved out his belongings and the last streamliner passed Tuesday, it was the end of "Lucky" Baldwin's project.

Now, Sierra Madreans and eastern visitors who formerly boarded trains at that point will be compelled to go into Los Angeles, Arcadia, Monrovia or Pasadena.

DICTATORSHIPS WILL FALL SHIPPEY TELLS VETERANS AS OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED

Joseph C. Lamb, 5th district commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, assisted by the Alex Berger ritual team from Los Angeles, installed new officers of the local post at a Wistaria Vine dinner meeting Monday evening.

"Nobody who has lived or died for an ideal has lived or died in vain," was the keynote of an after-dinner talk by Lee Shippey, speaker of the evening. Lauding American soldiers who fought in the last World War, Mr. Shippey said as long as men who believe in an ideal are willing to give their lives for it, the world will go ahead.

"I believe the world will throw off the yoke of dictatorships and that democracy will triumph again, largely because of the ideals that men have died for," he concluded.

Entertainment preceding installation was provided by the Singing Sherwoods, former Sierra Madreans. Capt. E. G. Everett, past commander, presided, and was presented with a button for his splendid service during the year. A patriotic pillow, designed and made by Mr. Rightmire, was won by Mrs. J. W. Storm.

'Round The Town

Scores of Sierra Madre friends who have been wishing for the speedy recovery of D. A. Hawk, oldest resident of Canyon Park who has been seriously ill for the last several weeks, will be glad to know that he has improved sufficiently to be able to attend a family picnic at Brookside Park on Saturday.

Homer E. Robinson, 213 North Hermosa avenue, attended a weekend stag party given by William Miller at his Lucerne Valley ranch.

Miss Ella Shepard Bush of 223 West Laurel avenue is spending the month of April at Long Beach.

Among Sierra Madreans who found perfect weather along the coast during the weekend, were Mr. and Mrs. Foster Bumpus and children who, following a picnic luncheon at Cabrillo Beach, drove on to Long Beach and spent the evening on the sand enjoying the full moon.

Miss Carol Coumbe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Coumbe of 521 Alta Vista Drive, was weekend houseguest of Miss Joyce Halliday of Pasadena, at Balboa Island.

A tour of the Shields date ranch near Indio was among pleasant weekend activities of Miss Edna Green and Mrs. J. Earl Gossard who were guests for the weekend of Mr. and Mrs. John Gaylord and family who were vacationing at Palm Springs last week.

Wedding invitations and announcements—printed or engraved—and in latest type faces—are reasonable at the NEWS office.

Miss Daisy Hawks and Miss Jean Grantham left Wednesday for a short vacation in Santa Barbara.

Miss Marian Vannier and C. F. Vannier of 153 South Hermosa avenue are enjoying a week's vacation during which they plan to visit Boulder dam.

Ben Smith, who is a student at USC, was home over Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Smith of 609 West Sierra Madre Blvd.

Dr. W. H. Scoins of 214 West Carter avenue flew to San Diego last weekend to attend the American Academy of Medicine, and while in the Southern city was houseguest of Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Sundberg.

Mrs. J. E. Thompson, of Minneapolis, who was a member of the Stewart Memorial Presbyterian Church in that city when the Rev. Stewart R. Sheriff was pastor there, was a weekend houseguest at the Sheriff home here.

Mrs. Ida Freeland of San Jose recently arrived for a two weeks' visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alice Zelliff, of West Laurel avenue.

Mrs. Cora Corum will leave shortly for a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Liscomb at their Altadena home.

Among the interesting Japanese flower arrangements to be shown at the Pasadena Spring Flower Show will be one entered by Mrs. W. S. Hull for Pasadena College Woman's Club. This week Mrs. Hull attended the lecture on flower arrangement given by Ruth Allen in Los Angeles.

Miss Cecil Price and Mrs. Josie Price spent the weekend at their cottage, "Fairview" at Twenty Nine Palms, where they say the low growing desert wild flowers still form a brilliant carpet.

FAMOUS OLD SHORT CUT CANYON TRAIL TO MOJAVE DESERT WILL BE RE-OPENED SOON

Being Reconditioned To Connect Up With New Bridle Path System

A famous old trail north of Sierra Madre that was used in the old days by heavily laden pack trains will be re-opened and repaired for use this summer by the Angeles National Forest. The old Short Cut Canyon Trail from the West Fork of the San Gabriel over Newcomb Pass to Charlton Flats—the route formerly followed by pack trains and forest rangers through to the desert—is reached by way of Santa Anita Canyon, Sturtevant's Camp and West Fork. William V. Mendonhall, Angeles Forest Supervisor, and Ranger C. Ellsworth Harlan of the Santa Anita District, will cooperate with California Horsemen, Inc., an organization of 700 saddle horse owners, in opening up the old trail.

Clyde A. Wesson, president of California Horsemen, Inc., said the new territory will link with the new system of bridge trails being established by the county along new flood control channels as far south as Long Beach. The trail traverses rugged mountains all the way, crosses streams and high passes which give views of magnificent mountain scenery. "Many of our members already are making plans to ride into Charlton Flats this summer for their vacations, making headquarters at Newcomb Ranch, where our organization is building a large corral and laying in a supply of hay and grain," said Mr. Wesson.

POLICE CHIEF HOME AFTER OPERATION

Recuperating splendidly from an appendectomy performed last week at St. Luke's hospital, Police Chief Gordon McMillan returned to his home Tuesday. The chief is feeling fine but will "remain inside and take it easy" for a few days before going back to his duties at the City Hall. During his absence Fire Chief W. D. Richards is acting chief of police.

Complete Plans For May Day Breakfast

A Correction

In making up the last issue of THE NEWS for the press two lines of type were inadvertently dropped out of a story containing a resume of the vote cast at the recent municipal election. The lines unfortunately omitted read: "Thirty-seven of the 40 absentee voters marked their ballots in favor of City Clerk Pratt, bringing his total to 1,246." As the item appeared Henry J. Mitchell, candidate for city council, was credited with Mr. Pratt's vote. Mr. Mitchell's vote was 303.

Evidently losing control of her car after bumping into an automobile driven by Robert LaLone, Mrs. W. T. Wersted, of 65 East Mira Monte avenue, received a long cut on her nose Wednesday noon when her machine struck the gutter on the east side of Baldwin avenue, and hit a large tree.

GREEN FOODS Certified FIRST-MORNING FRESH

No longer do you have to guess or gamble about freshness in green foods. Safeway's new method of selling these perishable items brings you vegetables CERTIFIED First-Morning Fresh. HERE'S HOW THE PLAN WORKS: Safeway buys the best green foods that farmers can grow — many of them produced especially for us. These vegetables are rushed to each Safeway store every morning. At your Safeway, this First-Morning Fresh produce is plainly marked with cards reading "FIRST-MORNING FRESH". Only first day produce gets this sign. Any green goods that are carried over are labeled "SECOND DAY PRODUCE", and priced lower. Try this better way of buying vegetables today. Money back if you don't find Safeway vegetables more tender and tempting.
